RALLY

in defence of Ukraine

her honour, territorial integrity and sovereignty, and against Russia's imperialist ambitions

Sunday, May 30, 2010 at 2:00PM

Russian Consulate General

175 Bloor St. East, Toronto (Bloor & Church)

We share with our Ukrainian brethren in our ancestral homeland an unwavering belief in God and Ukraine, a faith that sustained the Ukrainian nation during its long and painful march to independence.

As Canadians who trace their heritage to Ukraine we sense in our hearts at this time of great peril the call for vigilance by the great bard of Ukraine:

*"As terrifying as being bound in shackles,
And to die in bondage is,
It is much worse to – sleep, sleep,
And sleep in freedom..."*

Taras Shevchenko

The Great Ukrainian nation on its ancestral soil and in the Diaspora, spread by fate across the world, is rising-up to defend the God given, and by Ukrainian patriots' blood consecrated freedom of our ancestral homeland - Ukraine!
