

Shevchenko Foundation presents

The 4th Biennial Kobzar Literary Award

2012 Ceremony and Dinner

Kobzar Literary Award Shortlist 2012

Poetry	Non-Fiction	Non-Fiction	Fiction	Fiction

Larissa Andrusyshyn Mammoth EC Books, Toronto, Ontario, 2011	Myrna Kostash Padiplai: A Journey to Byzantium University of Alberta Press, Edmonton, Alberta, 2011	Myroslav Shkandrij Jews in Ukrainian Literature: Representations and Identity Yale University Press, Toronto, 2011	Rhea Trzebebov The Knife, Sharpener's Ball Litava Books, Toronto, Ontario, 2011	Shandi Mitchell Under This Unbroken Sky Penguin Group Canada, Toronto, Ontario, 2011

Jurors
Denise Chong • Randall Maggs
Nino Ricci • MG Vassanji

Event

Thursday, March 1, 2012
Palais Royale: 1601 Lakeshore Boulevard West, Toronto, Ontario
Cocktails: 6:30 pm • Dinner: 7:30 pm • Dress: Cocktail
Tickets: $250/person
Call Olesia at 416-233-9700 or email christine@shevchenkofoundation.com

Kobzar Literary Award Vision

To foster cultural development in Canada through the Literary Arts and create opportunities for all Canadian writers to explore Ukrainian Canadian themes.

Kobzar Literary Award Patrons

The Right Honourable Adrienne Clarkson
The Honourable Senator Raynell Andreychuk
Joy Kogawa
Nino Ricci

Kobzar Literary Award

Present biennially, the $25,000 prize recognizes a Canadian writer who best presents a Ukrainian Canadian theme with literary merit through poetry, drama, fiction, non-fiction or young people's literature.

For more information visit www.kobzarliteraryaward.com